OTHER BUISNESS

E. Public comment

Mike Wikstrom stated that they were here to do a follow up on the Glacier Acres road, wondering if Commissioner DesRosier was able to talk to the County Attorney.

Commissioner DesRosier stated that they want to go ahead with the road and that they did not see the first part of the road being an issue. Commissioner DesRosier asked if there was going to be any conflicts with fencing, Mike Wikstrom replied that there was one fence and the person said he would move it.

Commissioner DesRosier stated now the only thing to be done is to get everything recorded, county accepts the new mile and a half road as an access route. Mike Wikstrom stated that he brought in all of the required documents needed to have it recorded.

Commissioner DesRosier wanted to make note to check with the County Planner to make sure he got the information and to put on his calendar to be written up and recorded. Mike Wikstrom asked if it needed to have a public hearing, Commissioner DesRosier stated that it may and he would talk to the County Attorney. Commissioner Overcast stated that he wants to see it done before winter.

Mike Wikstrom stated that someone paid John Ray to blade the road. Commissioner DesRosier talked about a speed limit, Regina Rink stated that's what they would want, to also keep the dust down. Commissioner DesRosier stated that maybe at some point Snoop will want to put down some Mag Chloride, but probably not this year with the budgets.

Commissioner Overcast stated that they will keep the road maintained this winter. Commissioner DesRosier would like a public hearing scheduled at the next meeting in East Glacier and if there is not a meeting we need to schedule one. Commissioner DesRosier would like the public hearing to be put on the August 27, 2019 agenda in Browning.

F. Next Meeting-Tuesday, August 19, 2019-Cut Bank

Commissioner McKay motioned to adjourn meeting @ 9:37 am; Commissioner Overcast second; motion carried.
