NEW BUSINESS:

C. Discussion: Presentation on East Glacier Women’s Club Tax Exempt Status – East Glacier Women’s Club

Judy Moats, Public was able to get the East Glacier Women’s Club to a tax exempt and property exempt status. She states that the EGWC closed because of COVID-19 last year. We do have windows purchased and they need to be put in. EGWC has received money received from the Glacier County Regional Port Authority. We have put off the fixing of the roof. She talks about the Articled Inside Trail about the Pilcro foundation and they gave a donation for library and this provided 72 new children’s books. Roberta DesRosier, Public covered the books and money paid her wages. It is stated that they are not funded by Glacier County. They have a book rotation with free book exchange which is an outside library. We get donated books. Invited to view library.

D. Discussion: East Glacier Park Community Issues

- Question by public: Does Glacier County support parks and rec, the little park needs maintenance: Commissioner DesRosier said funded with grants and they don’t fund on going issues. Region 1 is who we work with for grants. We will continue talks. Matching funds required maybe we can get some funds. Maintenance is still a question.
- Street Maintenance availability. Work on our obligations and roads we have jurisdiction on Maintenance of Glacier Acres. Getting documents to support need for East Glacier needs, Bridge and Roads.
- Public Safety and EMT services for East Glacier. Still have Babb Ambulance service, what about EGP? Commissioners will discuss.
- Sewer needs in area. Discussion
- Government to Government cooperation with Blackfeet Nation.

E. Discussion: 2012 Alley Decommission East Glacier Park School Dist#50 & Dancing Bears Inn, LLC – East Glacier Park School Board & Denise Mason, East Glacier School Clerk

There is discussion on the alley behind the East Glacier School District that was talked about in 2011 by the Glacier County Commissioners. There is an issue with it and the concern is that the utilities run under the alley. When it talked about many years ago it was decided that it would be split down the center and that each would have a 50/50 split of the alley. There is a discussion about the issue of the alley and the commissioners state that they will inquire with John “Snoop” Evans, Glacier County Road Supervisor and Jim Yeagley, Glacier County Planner on this issue.
